

CULTIVATE MINISTRIES NEWSLETTER...November...2009

P.O. BOX 526 Florissant, CO 80816 (719) 630-1222 www.cultivateministries.org

Greetings in Jesus!

First, I just want to say how much I appreciate all you guys who help keep this ministry going through your prayers and gifts of support. Really! If it were not for you guys, this ministry would have been taken out a long time ago!

Well, so much is happening so fast! So much to cover in such a small newsletter. I'll do what I can. But first, see below.

Time to Renew...!

Every year, beginning in November, I ask people to renew for this newsletter for the following year. You may have seen the TIME TO RENEW stamp on the envelope. I start this in November because come December it's usually too hectic to get it all done in time for everyone to receive January's newsletter. Now, some of you have been receiving this newsletter for over 25 years! For others, this might be your first one, so it might seem a bit odd to need to renew already but please understand this is done on an annual calendar basis. We do this to screen out those who toss the newsletter in the trash without reading it.

Now there's some of you who have no need to renew. These would be those in prisons and those who are 30 Club members who receive everything aired each month via CDs & DVDs. Everyone else needs to renew. Here's how it works. I personally go through every letter that comes in from the beginning of this month through December, whether a request from the resource list or simply a note from people requesting to be renewed. These letters are then placed in a renewal box. Everyone who has a letter in that box will be renewed. Those that do not, will not be. Please do not call or email me on this. I'm way too busy! In fact, it will be someone else, Linda, who will be doing the renewals. Is it worth it? You tell me. Each month I have supplied you with information you'd never catch on the news, in church or most other ministries. I've offered multitudes of CDs & DVDs for a gift of any amount rather than the astronomical amounts being asked by others and have encouraged you to make copies and share with others. Again, you decide if it's worth it.

Now we have just gone through an entire year since the beginning of the financial collapse of this country. I'm quite shocked we made it! But it's not over. Things are likely to get much worse in 2010 so any gifts of support to help us get through this next year would be greatly appreciated!

Cultivate Back on the Air in Southern Arizona!

Now, I've been thrown off the air before, but this was the first time I've ever been asked to come back on again. In last month's newsletter I mentioned what happened with KGMS in Tucson and why. I was off the air on that station for about three weeks but to my surprise, the station manager, Doug Martin, contacted me, asking me to come back on again. It was in a very humble manner. Apparently, he had receive a number of calls and letters from listeners explaining how such a broadcast was needed to inform the Church on matters not being addressed anywhere else. I want to thank those of you who contacted him and expressed your opinions. It is a very difficult thing for a Christian radio station manager to humble himself before the Lord and take such an action. Again, thank you for your prayers and your actions. Faith plus works!

Health Care & the New World Order

I've already reported on the borders coming down between Canada, the United States and Mexico, helping to fulfill the prophecies of the coming one world government. The original mandate for the dropping of these borders was 2010. Not far away now. I thought you might find the following interesting... I, along with most Americans have no health care because we can't afford it. I'm supposed to be taking what I call water pills (Furosemide) but I can't get them anymore unless I go to a doctor, get poked and prodded again and then get a one month supply. Could cost over $1000.00 which I can't afford. I was down to a 1 week's supply when I learned my neighbor was going down to Mexico to buy things either less expensive or not available here at all, at least not over the counter like in Canada and Mexico. I asked if he could pick up some of these water pills for me. When he got to the border, he was told he needed a visa! A visa to go into Mexico? They let him in anyway but told him to have a visa next time. Now this visa thing costs Americans money and a headache. Once he got back, he called me with the news he was able to purchase these water pills over the counter with no problem. He brought back six bottles! Not a month's supply, but almost two years worth! The cost? $18.60! That's only $3.00 per bottle and 10 cents each!

Now, what's the big crisis in America? Health care. Everyone is screaming out we need health care reform! The American people can't afford $150 for a bottle of pills. The answer? Open the borders! Let's all become one big happy family! Can you see here how they create the crisis first, then fix the problem to establish their own agenda? If you wish to learn more on this and have not yet seen the DVD One World, it's available this month for a gift of any amount and duplication is encouraged!

H1N1 Bird/Swine Flu Update

Many are saying this flu is impossible to come about in any natural way and had to be manufactured in the lab, as was the HIV virus. And concerning the vaccine, many are saying it's better to just catch this flu rather than taking the vaccine because no one really knows of the long term effects it might bring. Or short term as well. I've heard that with some, it has caused heart murmurs. Also, that with at least some of these vaccines there have been found trace amounts of mercury. We have a tendency to think all these flu vaccines are the same, but they are being produced from many locations with different groups. It has been reported now the main victims of this flu are young people. Including the highest in death tolls! Could it be possible this is another population reduction plan of the New World Order boys? And of course, we're being told there's a major shortage of the vaccine so multitudes have gone into a panic trying to get the vaccine by whatever means possible! We already know of the agenda to bring the population down worldwide to about 20% of what it is now. And it is the same organization that's involved with both viruses, the HIV that was first introduced into South Africa, and now the H1N1. The W.H.O. (World Health Organization) is not American based, but a part of the New World Order. One can only speculate accordingly.

Colloidal Silver

We've already had a family get hit with the H1N1 virus up here where I live. A 13 year old girl caught it from school, brought it home and it didn't take long before her mother came down with it as well. The county immediately shut down the schools but it was too late. Schools all over the country either have been, or are being, shut down! As soon as I learned about this family, I went over to explain how Colloidal Silver can kill this flu in very little time. I had no fear of subjecting myself to the virus because I had taken some Colloidal Silver first myself. Unfortunately, she, like many others, had not heard of this before so she opted to just stick it out with some over the counter stuff to lessen the symptoms. Both she and her daughter survived but told me that 3 of the days they experienced were just unbearable! It's so sad when you have something that can help or perhaps even save someone's life that they turn it down simply because they're unfamiliar with it.

Remember, according to the U.C.L.A Medical Dept., Colloidal Silver killed every virus tested in the lab. Over 650 of them! And you can make it at home for only pennies per gallon!

I'm planning to post a short YouTube on line to show people how easy it is to make their own Colloidal Silver generators. Please do pray we get this accomplished and that it goes over well. This information could literally save the lives of millions of people! Meanwhile, we do still have these kits available for only $20.00 to you guys. But during the first week of this month, I'm airing Suppressed Medical Discoveries with Dr. Robert Beck and the price of these kits will be higher due to everything going up so much. Especially silver! These kits come with everything you need including instructions. Now after this YouTube hits the internet, I don't know what will happen. Many may want to order the completed kit rather than make their own so I may swamped getting them out to the masses. By the way, if you'd like to obtain the DVD Suppressed Medical Discoveries, it's available for a gift of any amount this month.

Whatever Happened to the New Age Movement?

By Leisa Garcia, Koinonia Institute

During the 1980's, Bible-believing pastors, teachers, and watchmen for "The Faith" stood up and began to prevail against the New Age Movement.

By the mid 1990's, it appeared as if the church assumed the threat had passed. It was as if a veil of deception enveloped the church to hide the truth – not only had the New Age Movement not faded away, it was spreading exponentially into the very fabric of society.

Ray Yungen, author of A Time of Departing, describes this cleverly renamed New (Age) Spirituality as "The Invisible Denomination". It has been hiding in plain sight for two decades. It is time for the church to remove the veil of deception and see this New (Age) Spirituality, which has permeated evangelical denominations, Bible schools, seminaries, Christian publishers and also the teachings of respected Bible teachers.

Paganism in Modern Dress

Walter Martin evaluated these practices in his 1989 book, The New Age Cult, in which he states, "The New Age Cult is a revival of this ancient occultism. It holds historical ties to Sumerian, Indian, Egyptian, Chaldean, Babylonian, and Persian religious practices."

The following occult practices (among others) are described in Deuteronomy 18:10-11:

- Divination: A "catch all" name for using any method to discover details of what is happening around you or to learn what will happen in the future by any means other than through God himself, who alone knows the end from the beginning.
- Enchanter: Another name for a sorcerer; one who practices the arts of magic of all kinds – magical remedies, potions, drugs and hallucinogens to see into the future.
- Witchcraft: "The craft" or WICCA; includes sorcery and the worship of the mother Goddess, nature, trees, etc.
- Charmer: Binds something physical with the spiritual; charms, amulets, something worn or carried on one's person (i.e., good luck charm or religious article with a supposed blessing attached).
- Consulter of familiar spirits: Communicator with fallen angels or demonic entities in the spirit world.
- Wizard: One who has supernatural knowledge that is attained through communication with familiar Spirits; a "knower".
- Necromancer: One who attempts to communicate with the spirits of the dead to acquire knowledge or to ask for assistance in some way by praying to anyone other than God Himself.

New (Age) Spirituality includes the practice of many of these things; most notably consultation with and channeling information from familiar spirits, called "Spirit Guides".

Common New (Age) Spirituality Practices

There is one key practice called "Mystical Meditation," from which certain beliefs emerge. Mystical Meditation is an essential part of New (Age) Spirituality, as well as other Eastern religions, mystical sects (i.e., Muslim Sufis and Jewish Kaballah), and the occult (i.e., Satanists and witchcraft).

There are a multitude of variations of Mystical Meditation. Some are given specific "brand names," such as Transcendental Meditation and Silva Mind Control, but they commonly share the following characteristics:

1. Comfortable positions (i.e., sitting, lying down or in an accepted Yoga position) to maintain a relaxed physical state without distraction.
2. Methods of concentrated focus (i.e., rhythmic breathing, maintained visual contact on a single object, or silent word repetitions), often accompanied by specific types of soft music, which assists the practitioner in reaching an altered state of consciousness where the mind is cleared of all conscious thought. This state of consciousness has often been referred to as "The Thin Place" – a state of mind in which the physical and spiritual worlds meet.

When the practitioner experiences random thoughts, he reacquires the altered state quickly by returning to the focus method. At this point, the practitioner may "experience a sense of unity with all creation." Many attain new knowledge or understanding, become "enlightened," and may also experience various physical sensations. It is important to note, as discussed earlier, that the Hebrew word for "Wizard" means "a knower." This practice is wizardry.

Channeling from Spirit Guides

During meditation, practitioners are often instructed to use visualization to connect with their Spirit Guide(s). Others may be instructed to await the appearance of a Spirit Guide in either human or animal form. Some choose religious personages, including Jesus, admired historical figures, angelic beings, or a "more successful self" created in a parallel reality to teach how to become more successful in life.

Many famous New (Age) Spirituality writers claim to receive their inspiration or works directly from their Spirit Guide(s):

- Alice Bailey, occultist and New Age Matriarch, who some credit with coining the phrase "New Age," and of which the New (Age) Spirituality leaders reference quite often, had a spirit guide called Djwhal Khul (DJ).
- Helen Schuchman transcribed A Course in Miracles as dictated by her Spirit Guide, an inner voice which identified itself as "Jesus".
- Barbara Marx Hubbard transcribed her book, The Revelation: A Message of Hope for the New Millennium, from her Spirit Guide, an inner voice which identified itself as "Christ."
- Neale Donald Walsch wrote an angry letter to God and was amazed when "God" immediately answered his letter by speaking to him through an inner voice which resulted in his book, Conversations with God.
- Ester Hicks bases her best-selling books on translations of thought she claims she channels from a group of non-physical entities called "Abraham."
- David Spangler wrote many New Age books including The Birth of the New Age, which he said was a compilation of channeled transmission he received from his disembodied spirit guide, "John."
- Bernie Segal, an author and leader in the New (Age) Spirituality, claims to have a spirit guide named "George," whom he met the very first time he meditated.

The New (Age) Spirituality is not just a fad practiced and believed by a minority. It has entered society today through many different avenues.

The New Spirituality / Occultism in Post-Modern Society

Following are some of the areas in which the New (Age) Spirituality is accepted in society today:

- Meditation in the work place: A number of corporations (i.e., Apple, Google, McKinsey, Deutsche Bank, Texas Instruments, AOL, Yahoo!, Raytheon, Nortel Networks, Metronic's, Viacom International Inc., and Monsanto) provide meditation training to reduce stress and increase productivity.
- Napoleon Hill & A Positive Mental Attitude: Napoleon Hill, author of the famous book, Think and Grow Rich, credits his foundational teachings of the success, motivation and positive mental attitude books, courses and seminars to the teachings of disembodied spirits who called themselves "Ascended Masters." Apparently Mr. Hill earned the right to reveal a Supreme Secret to others: "You have been under the guidance of the Great School...now you must give the world a blueprint..." Millions of business people, including Christians, have taken these courses and seminars not realizing that they are being taught "doctrines of demons."
- Reiki in the Health Care System: The ability to heal came to Mikao Usui during a spiritual experience on a sacred mountain. The ability was called "Reiki" (Ray-key). According to the American Hospital Association, Reiki is being offered in a growing number of hospitals within the U.S. A Reiki.org article entitled, "Developing Your Reiki Practice," clearly identifies the practice: "Sensing the presence of spiritual beings, feeling their touch, knowing they work with you. Being raised into ever greater levels of joy and peace by simply placing your hands on another. Watching your life grow and develop as your continual immersion in Reiki transforms your attitudes, values and beliefs. Sensing that because of your commitment to help others, beings of light are focusing their love and healing on you and carefully guiding you on your spiritual path..."

- Meditation in the Prison System: The Dharma Foundation is a nonprofit organization that produces a newsletter about meditation for those who are in correction facilities. Volunteers from their organization work with such programs as centering prayer, Zen meditations, and conflict resolution. They assert that 85% of inmates who have practiced substantive meditation never return as repeat offenders. In an online presentation of the Dharma Seeds Foundation, it states: "For any human to transform into the natural spiritual creation they are, they first must accept their own salvation from lower self towards the true SELF. Once they have done this they can then incorporate their own spiritual upbringing..."
- Meditation in the Public School System: The children in the Natakali Talibah Schoolhouse in Detroit meditate for ten minutes twice a day. The University of Michigan followed 140 of the school's 10 to 14-year-olds and reported the children were more connected, happy, satisfied, peaceful and calm. Their studies indicate that children who meditate do better in school than those who do not.

The so-called benefits of meditation practices can be found in many websites. An example from a Health & Yoga website:

Though meditation is usually recognized as a largely spiritual practice, it also has many health benefits. The yoga and meditation techniques are being implemented in management of life threatening diseases; in transformation of molecular and genetic structure; in reversal of mental illnesses, in accelerated learning programs, in perceptions and communications beyond the physical, in solving problems and atomic and nuclear physics; in gaining better ecological understanding; in management of lifestyle and future world problems.

If all these results come from mystical meditation, then how could God possibly object to it? Scripture, especially Deuteronomy 18, does not allow for an "if it feels good, do it" attitude.

We as Christians should not be ignorant of Satan's devices and should recognize when these practices creep into our lives and our churches. However, replacing New Age fundamental practices with Christian words has allowed an unsettling infiltration of both.

Who Am I...?

I was born in one country, raised in another. My father was born in another country. I was not his only child. He fathered several children with numerous women.

I became very close to my mother, as my father showed no interest in me. My mother died at an early age from cancer.

Later in life, questions arose over my real name.

My birth records were sketchy and no one was able to produce a legitimate, reliable birth certificate.

I grew up practicing one faith but converted to Christianity, as it was widely accepted in my country, but I practiced non-traditional beliefs & didn't follow Christianity, except in the public eye under scrutiny.

I worked and lived among lower-class people as a young adult, disguising myself as someone who really cared about them.

That was before I decided it was time to get serious about my life and I embarked on a new career.

I wrote a book about my struggles growing up. It was clear to those who read my memoirs that I had difficulties accepting that my father abandoned me as a child.

I became active in local politics in my 30's then with help behind the scenes, I literally burst onto the scene as a candidate for national office in my 40s. They said I had a golden tongue and could talk anyone into anything. That reinforced my conceit.

I had a virtually non-existent resume, little work history, and no experience in leading a single organization. Yet I was a powerful speaker and citizens were drawn to me as though I were a magnet and they were small roofing tacks.

I drew incredibly large crowds during my public appearances. This bolstered my ego.

At first, my political campaign focused on my country's foreign policy. I was very critical of my country in the last war and seized every opportunity to bash my country.

But what launched my rise to national prominence were my views on the country's economy. I pretended to have a really good plan on how we could do better and every poor person would be fed & housed for free.

I knew which group was responsible for getting us into this mess. It was the free market, banks & corporations. I decided to start making citizens hate them and if they were envious of others who did well, the plan was clinched tight.

I called mine "A People's Campaign" and that sounded good to all people.

I was the surprise candidate because I emerged from outside the traditional path of politics & was able to gain widespread popular support.

I knew that, if I merely offered the people 'hope', together we could change our country and the world.

So, I started to make my speeches sound like they were on behalf of the downtrodden, poor, ignorant to include "persecuted minorities" like the Jews. My true views were not widely known & I needed to keep them unknown, until after I became my nation's leader.

I had to carefully guard reality, as anybody could have easily found out what I really believed, if they had simply read my writings and examined those people I associated with.

I'm glad they didn't. Then I became the most powerful man in the world. And the world learned the truth.

Who am I ?? -- ADOLF HITLER

WHO WERE YOU THINKING OF?

Scary isn't it?

Fox News has been bringing out this type of information to the point there's now a war taking place between Fox and The Whitehouse. Obama has stated he will not appear on the Fox Network for the rest of this year!

If you have not yet seen the DVDs, "The Obama Deception" or "A Question of Eligibility" they are available for a gift of any amount this month.

FM Transmitter?

I just don't have the time or the knowledge to obtain something I've been trying to get a hold of for quite a while now. A simple to use FM radio transmitter of at least 50 Watts that would also work off of a 12 volt car battery. This would allow me to broadcast from here at my cabin to the surrounding area anything I want. People might hear the Gospel for the first time up here! We have very little FM reception up here from other stations so it shouldn't interfere with any other broadcasts. I've seen some on ebay but they're all from China with no one to talk to for further instructions. I've also looked into AM but have been told it's much more complicated. I like simple! I really need one from someone I can actually talk to about it. The unit I'm looking for must be able to change the frequency to anywhere on the FM band so as to not interfere with other signals, and the means to crank up the power to reach out much further should we experience a major power outage due to an EMP (Electro Magnetic Pulse) This is what will take place should there be a nuclear blast 100 miles up over the United States. I really don't think this is a matter of IF but WHEN this will take place. Having such an FM transmitter that would also work from a 12 volt battery would enable me to let people know what had taken place, what to do, what not to do and of course they'd also hear the Gospel and learn where we are in light of Bible prophecy. Maybe you know someone. Your local friendly Radio Shack guy. Or someone else who knows electronics. The units I've seen on ebay are around $200.00 so this is do-able. But I need someone's help here. For this, I'm giving out my personal email address so you can contact me, cultbuster7@yahoo.com And of course there's the phone. 1-719-630-1222. Maybe you can just search the internet or whatever. Now don't go thinking someone else will do this because they're thinking the same way you are. I would really appreciate your help on this. Prayer works good too! Once I have a transmitter up and running, I'll let you guys know everything about it in case you might want to do the same thing! Thanks!

ENDING NOTE...

Again, I just want to thank those of you who help to keep this ministry going through your prayers and gifts of support! I recently had two other stations contact me about getting the broadcast on. One that covers most all of Colorado and the other, Northern Arizona. I had to turn them both down due to a lack of finances but I would appreciate your prayers in the matter. Thanks again ever so much!
